

Candidate for the Managing Committee

Ishwar
V.
Parab

- Ishwar has over three decades of experience in accounts and administration. He has an ability to focus on the smallest and the most important details and believes in completing any task very sincerely in an organized manner. He has been regularly involved with the activities at the BPS club. He has participated in various sports events since early 2000s and has also been a key part in organizing social and cultural events at the club. He has a certification in weightlifting and has been fitness and gym enthusiast since his younger days.
- Ishwar regularly indulges himself into current affairs and news, and is up-to date with latest developments across the world. He believes that his skills and experience can contribute towards making your club a better place in terms of health and fitness. If given an opportunity, he would want to help your club reach new heights in line with the rest of the world.
- For more details please visit <https://www.vivabps.club/>

“Viva BPS - We are always available at the club”